Morgan Iler
9804 Nicholas St. #310
Omaha NE 68114-2181

Dear Morgan,

Having retired, (age 62) I recently moved back to my hometown area in southwest Minnesota. In the process of moving, I retrieved the contents of my safety deposit box in Minneapolis & was reminded that I still hadn't gotten around to photocopying & sending you a copy of a letter from a Charles Brady Iler of Germantown MD. He wrote in December 1972 in response to a letter I sent, & it's a most interesting letter at that, where he details how his family tree goes back to immigration from Rotterdam, Holland in 1740 & settling in Ohio County Kentucky via Pennsylvania & barges to Kentucky from there. The intermarriages detailed between the Boone's, Earp's, & the mention of a Revolutionary War General by the name of Casey are nothing short of astonishing.

He's not the most cogent author I've seen but claims that other Iler's have done the necessary research to document the summary he's provided. Born in 1898, He's probably long since left the scene, but might have nephews still alive that could provide further details. I tried to follow his info laboriously & provide a rough transcript of the handwritten letter he provided. Even when typed, it's not the easiest to follow but when I study it, it seems to make sense except for his chart of names on page 3 beginning with the phrase "Also from the Library of Congress, marriages recorded in Ohio County KY '1790 First US Census'." At first glance, I thought that 1790 First US Census notation to be absurd, but since the marriage dates run from 1812-1840 the 1790 Census may only be verifying that the named individuals were born circa 1790. That would leave the youngest named in the chart, Sally Iler, at least 22 years old at marriage if birth were circa 1790. The oldest, Eliza Ann, born 1840, would probably be something over 50 so it's plausible.

Possibly you can verify all of this, or maybe already have, according to your voluminous records, apparently running well over 2,000 names as of May 2000. I did at one time speak to a Mrs. Brehm in Minneapolis whose maiden name was Iler & who stated that her Iler's traveled in company of the Earp's in the midwest. My grandfather was born in the vicinity of Mendota Illinois & her Iler's were said to be in a nearby location; I looked it up at the time, & recall that the two families were only about 15 miles apart at that time. She said her Iler's ended up in a town about an hour's drive SE of Des Moines, Iowa & may well have traveled thru the Mason City/Des Moines vicinity from whence my grandfather migrated to southwest Minnesota. Her account was that she was descended from a Jacob Iler in the South, & that he argued with his clan about the morality of keeping slaves. Jacob disagreed with slaveholding & split off from his colonialist relatives & moved north. Mrs. Brehm stated that she had headstone tracings which documented the location of ancestors in the town SE of Des Moines. Interestingly, a library book (something like "The Vengeance of Wyatt Earp") detailed how the Earp's left that very vicinity of SE Iowa, circa Civil War times, on their way to (I believe) San Bernadino, CA & the Earp brothers' subsequent arrival in Tombstone AZ & the OK Corral fight.

Mrs. Brehm grew up in Colorado & was in south Minneapolis when I met her. She soon moved to north Minneapolis & was living with a daughter, temporarily, when I last spoke to her. Her parting comment, by phone, was "call me" when we could confirm a link between her Iler's & mine, or perhaps those descendants of the Charles Iler line. That was in the 1980's as I recall, so she's likely still alive but tracking her down may be problematic. She provided some information which I photocopied & tucked away, but I've moved 4 times since then & really don't ~~h~~have a clear cut idea of where to look for that today. Most of my belongings were put into storage in the early 1990's due to severe employment/economic problems & I woul imagine it's among those possessions but the storage contains possessions datin back to an unsuccessful job venture in 1980 & extensive accumulation since then And since I only recently moved here to Pipestone, I'm still moving into this h & really don't have the time to search for that info right this minute as I'm a helping my mother run the farm (she's 84) now that Dad died in February. So, perhaps, maybe yet this summer, but I simply don't have the time to look for a dozen or ~~2~~ 5 pages at this time.

Sincerely,

Richard Iler

P. S.--It's so interesting that both Charles Iler's account of his line & Mrs. Brehm's account cite relationships involving the Earp's, or, to be more specific, Wyatt (& brothers).

Dear Richard,

I think it is quite pathetic that I can trace my thoroughbreds back to the first English Stud book & know so little about my own family background, which is not to say I do not know much family background, regarding my own. I could supply or fill up a book of information I collected some twenty years ago & from that point William Iler Central City KY (my home state), a son of Judge Arthur T. Iler (my brother) the same address. Bill has researched much more information that would treble my own which covers many Iler's that he never could tie in (no doubt many of them are direct lines the same as our own).. Some time I'll try and get copies of my own & be able to pass on to someone like yourself, but to try and do it in a letter would take more time than I can give to the situation.
Leafing thru my booklet I come across the following:

~~Father~~ ~~Brothers/sisters~~ ~~Great grandfather~~

~~Homer Iler~~ ~~Lewis Iler~~ ~~Conrad Iler~~ ~~Jacob Iler~~

Nancy SISTER ~~Brother/sister~~	Father	Grandfather	Great grandfather
John Iler Jacob Iler ~~Lewis Iler~~	18560 Lewis Iler	18557 Conrad Iler	Jacob Iler

Homer Iler
or ded in Library
gress, 1929, by
of Topeka KS

WHO they married I failed to jot down.

LEAFING FURTHER: 18354 18355
Conrad Iler was a son of Jacob who married Catherine Boone (his second marriage) Feb. 24, 1808. Jacob's first marriage was to Margaret Lukebaugh (no children). Daniel Boone made a will Nov. 2, 1762: "I, Daniel Boone, of Fredrick Cty. MD, etc. / ..... children: Nicholas, Jacob, John, Catherine, & Elizabeth, wife Mary".
ber 3, 1969 (from a local news item) Katherine (Kate) Boone, 98, the last known immediate surviving relative of Kentucky frontiersman Daniel Boone (a voice music teacher) died Wednesday in a nursing home. Among her pupils Mrs. Warren Harnes, wife of Missouri governor. Miss Boone born Apr. 25, 1872 Clinton Kentucky

More information concerning Homer Iler can be obtained from Library of Congress but did not jot down. As I vaguely remember he presented in form of letter as much as he knew of his own Iler family. Where they came from I have forgotten.
Also from the Library of Congress, Ohio Cty. KY marriages 1790 census ?

All marked by X are known to be related to me while PERRY above was my above Great Grandfather. All of my Iler family came from Ohio County Kentucky. The Ilers first settled in Pennsitvaniana (Pennsylvania?)--came down in barges to Kentucky in the Daniel Boone days. I obtained this infomation from my cousin Jane Mason 15887 Catherine Iler whose father & (her maiden name: Park, her mother was Dulcy Bellar as noted above.). Dulcy married twice mother were Perry Iler & Elizabeth Cooksey Colman Daniels (second marriage). In other words, she (Dulcy) was a full sister to Robert Triplet Iler (my grandfather). Thomas Iler was a brother.

Ann Cooksey, the daughter of my great grandmother Elizabeth Cooksey (maiden n Elizabeth Betsey Smith) married Nicholas Earp and from this union came : Belly (must be misspelled--doesn't appear to be Bella according to how author forms hi so he must have intended "Belle") ~~Iler~~ Earp, Wyatt (the famous Western marshal), Walter Earp, Virgal (or Virgle) Earp, Morgan Earp.

You could come from this Ohio County KY Iler branch but if so it would alm have to be from another branch than PERRY ILER as I am very familiar with most o the descendants of Perry.

My nephew, Bill Iler, has rather clearly established that these Ohio County Iler's left Rotterdam, Holland in 1740 or thereabouts and settled in Pennesval in (no doubt intends Pennsylvania) and from there to Kentucky by barges.

The Library of Congress is full of genealogies of Eyler/Eiler--all were a later migration to America and all were Germans married to German women.

The herein mentioned Perry Iler's mother was Frances Casey whose father was William Casey, a General in the Revolutionary War. Frances Casey was a sister Mark Twain's mother. Perry Iler's father was Daniel Iler, who was a son of Jo hn
